Eloquent and Feeling Tribute by
Chief Justice Frear to His Late
Associate—His Characteristics.

Yesterday morning at 10 o'clock the Supreme Court heard the memorial resolution of the bar association upon the late Chief Justice Albert F. Judd. All the justices were present, including the following judges, officials and members of the bar:

A. S. Humphreys, Sanford B. Dole, H. E. Cooper, W. A. Whiting, W. L. Stanley, P. Neumann, D. H. Case, F. M. Hatch, E. P. Dole, W. L. Wilcox, C. Fred Peterson, L. Andrews, Geo. A. Davis, Geo. D. Gear, F. W. Hankey, A. G. M. Robertson, A. A. Wilder, J. L. Kaulukou, D. Kahanalei, S. K. Kanei, Enoch Johnson, L. M. Long, C. Brown, A. M. Brown, P. L. Weaver, H. R. Hitchcock, H. A. Bigelow, A. W. Carter, W. A. Kinney, C. Creighton, T. McCants Stewart, L. A. Dickey, S. M. Ballou, W. O. Smith, S. F. Chillingworth, W. A. Henshall, L. M. Robbins, and B. D. Marx.

Mr. Andrews presented the resolution. He moved that it be spread on the minutes and a copy sent to the family of the deceased. Following is the resolution:

"Our late Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Albert Francis Judd, having been removed from us by untimely death on the 20th day of May, A. D. 1900, the Bar Association of the Hawaiian Islands respectfully presents to the Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii, as a mark of respect, the following resolutions:

"Resolved, That by the death of our lamented Chief Justice this community has sustained a serious and deplorable loss."

"That as a jurist the deceased has always occupied a prominent place in the history of the Hawaiian Islands;

"That his long service of twenty-six years as Justice and Chief Justice of our Supreme Court has shown him to have been a just, upright and capable, and of a disposition which gained for him the respect and affection of those with whom he was brought into contact;

"That as a fellow-citizen he was justly appreciated for his honesty, purity of life and public spirit.

"Requiescat in pace.
"PAUL NEUMANN,
"L. ANDREWS,
"S. K. KANE.

"Committee."
Mr. Neumann seconded the motion. He spoke feelingly of the deceased jurist, of his integrity, urbanity, Christian spirit, benevolence and his readiness to assist others. He was strong in character and of an exceedingly sociable disposition. His kindness to members of the bar was proverbial.

Mr. Kane's remarks were interpreted by W. O. Smith. Death comes to all alike. The late Chief Justice was held in high esteem and occupied an excellent position under three regimes—the monarchy, the provisional government and the republic—he was Chief Justice. Native Hawaiians came to him for advice.

Mr. Kaulukou also spoke in Hawaiian. The late Chief Justice was a friend of the Hawaiians. It was with sorrow that the speaker participated in the proceedings.

Mr. Creighton recalled the time when he traveled the circuits with the late Chief Justice. The speaker was then Deputy Attorney General. The deceased was an agreeable and genial companion. His decisions were always received with respect. Mr. Hankey's tribute was that of a comparative stranger. The late Chief Justice was one of those men who had made their mark. This was accomplished through ability and the purity of his character.

W. O. Smith said that only a few members of the bar were present when the late Chief Justice took his oath of office. The Supreme Court during his term of office was above reproach. It was respected by all. Credit was due the late Chief Justice for the exalted character of the Hawaiian judiciary.

Addresses were also delivered by T. McCants Stewart, Attorney General Dole and F. M. Hatch.

One of the most graceful tributes paid to the dead jurist was that of Chief Justice Frear. The Chief Justice gave a brief biographical sketch of his late associate and with much feeling recounted his many characteristics. It was a sincere and touching tribute.

The Chief Justice ordered the resolution spread upon the minutes.

Good Medicine for Children

If you have a baby in the house you will wish to know the best way to check any unusual looseness of the bowels, or diarrhoea, so common to small children. O. P. M. Holliday, of Deming, Ind., who has an 11-months' old child, says: "Through the months of June and July our baby was teething and took a running off of the bowels and sickness of the stomach. His bowels would move from five to eight times a day. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house and gave him four drops in a teaspoonful of water, and he got better at once." For sale by all dealers and druggists. Has that satisfactory feeling which invariably comes to a man after partaking heartily of an excellent dinner. It causes him to wonder what there is in the world to be miserable about.

THE "KASH"

Is a rendezvous for well dressed men. Very Modish are the Suits and Furnishing Goods shown by us this season. Our windows tell about them. Have a look during luncheon hour.

"It's a very good world to live in,
To lend, or to spend, or to give in,
But to beg, or to borrow, or to get a man's own,
It is the very worst world that ever was known."

AND WORST OF ALL, the dear old world is busy trying to forget how to give a lot for a little. It's a fad of ours TO BE FRANK. And, besides, if we advertised at all times to give you more than "your money's worth," it would be an insult to your intelligence.

THIS IS WHAT WE DO—We give you one hundred cents' worth of merchandise for one dollar—EVERY TIME. Ask some of your friends—they know. We are offering this week Crash Suits for Men—Coat, Vest and Pants at $2.55 the Suit.
